Additional Information:

- The Office of Financial Aid reserves the right to adjust a student's loan amount based on Federal Regulation and final receipt for all official documentation.
- Loan amounts will be split evenly between the Fall and Spring Terms.
- An origination fee will be taken from the gross accepted loan amount by your loan servicer. If you adjust the amount you would like to accept, note the amount applied to your account/bill will be less.
- Federal Stafford Loans must be repaid by the borrower (student) even if the borrower does not complete the program of study.
- Repayment of loans will begin 6 months following graduation or dropping below half time (less than 6 credits).
- To remain eligible for your Federal Stafford Loans, students must:
 - Have a non-expired Master Promissory Note on file. (Please complete at studentloans.gov)
 - Have completed Entrance Counseling on file with ACU. (Please complete at studentloans.gov)
 - Meet Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards.
 - Be enrolled in at least 6 credits applying towards their degree.
